Alhambra Dinner Theater

At a table set for two, covered by an elegant face cloth and adorned with matching napkins, silverware, stylish China plates and coffee cups, a vision of the future arose. Founders Ted Johnson and George Gallis were confident in their concept of a new theater. Since, the Alhambra Theater has been a place where friends and families can come together to enjoy a Broadway-quality show and a delightful meal. Today, the Alhambra stands proudly as the nation's oldest continuously operating dinner theater, With the improvements current owner Craig Smith has directed coupled with the quality performances and occasional stars previous owner Tod Booth directs, the Alhambra is as vibrant as ever after more than a half century in operation.
