This matinee is only available on Saturdays.

Come join us for a new adventure that is guaranteed to spark the spirit from “The Witnesses”, is one of Enopion’s immersive theatrical productions which places the audience inside the courtroom of Pontius Pilate, where Christ’s trial is re-enacted through the testimonies of witnesses such as Mary Magdalene, Peter (Apostle), a blind man made to see, and a child raised from the dead. The show deliberately does not present an actor as Jesus, emphasizing instead the testimonies and events surrounding the trial. Through this immersive format—actors move among the audience, the setting begins in the lobby, and the audience becomes part of the experience—the production invites viewers to witness the Gospel story in a fresh, up-close way.
